If you consider yourself a christian, you probably know that means you are a follower of Christ. But do you know what following Christ means or how to do it? Do you consider Christ your friend or do you see Him as a Ruler? I like this quote I came across the other day, “One of the most beautiful qualities of true friendship is to understand and to be understood.” If you are going to follow someone, you need to understand who they are and what they stand for in order to truly follow them. God made it easy to do this when he gave us his instruction manual, the Bible. If you want to know who Christ is, and if you want to know how to follow him, open up your bible and read.

We are called to follow Christ, which means a whole lot more than trying to live a good life and come to church once a week.
